

Conservation of resources through “closed loop” recycling

SURTECO GmbH pursues a “zero waste” production goal. Thus, our highest priority is the conservation of resources. All waste produced in the manufacture of plastic edge-bands (plastics and printing inks) is collected and sorted by material, processed as much as possible and mechanically recycled in-house. The targeted use of secondary raw materials closes the materials cycle, saves resources and minimises the production of waste.

